

Admission to Schools – Independent Advice

One source of advice for parents and carers is the Advisory Centre for Education (ACE). ACE is an independent national education advice centre which provides information on the education system.

ACE operates a national advice line and produces a wide range of publications. Especially helpful is a booklet entitled ‘Appealing for a school’ (a charge may be made for this document) which provides advice on how to appeal, how to present your case to the Appeal Panel, what happens at the Panel meeting, how the decision is made and further courses of action. The Booklet also gives advice on what to do if your appeal is unsuccessful.
