

Development Management & Enforcement Privacy Notice

This privacy notice applies to the Development Management & Enforcement service provided by Worcestershire County Council and should be read in addition to Worcestershire County Council's Full Privacy Notice.

The privacy notice will cover:

- Purpose for processing
- Personal information collected and lawful basis
- Who we may share your information with
- How long we will hold your information
- Your information rights

Purpose for processing

The services process personal information in order to manage and administer the Development Management & Enforcement service either directly or jointly with partners and commissioned private and third sector providers. This includes:

- Providing pre-application planning advice and assistance
- In order to deliver planning services such as processing planning applications
- To deal with planning appeals
- To monitor developments
- To take enforcement action

Personal information collected and lawful basis

The service processes personal information which is relevant to individual cases which may include, but is not limited to, the following personal data:

- Basic personal information such as name, address, telephone number, email address
- Financial information
- Any other information provided in support of a planning application
- Information in connection with an enforcement case which could include evidence such as photos with car registration details

The legal bases for processing this personal information are:

- necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject
- necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller

We process personal data to deliver public tasks outlined in the follow pieces of legislation:

- The Town & Country Planning Act 1990
- The Planning Act 2008
- The Housing & Planning Act 2016
- The Planning (Listed Buildings & Conservation Areas) Act 1990
- The Localism Act 2011
- The Highways Act 1980
- The Environment Act 1995
- The Environmental Protection Act 1990
- The Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981
- The Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000

Who we may share your information with

We may need to share the personal information you have given to us or we've collected about you with partner organisations where relevant to the individual and/or their service provision. These include but are not limited to:

- Statutory bodies and consultees
- The Planning Inspectorate (PINS)
- Other public bodies, including the courts and tribunal service
- Government agencies
- External auditors and regulators (such as the Local Government Ombudsman)
- Applicants
- Agents working on behalf of applicants

Information will only ever be shared when it is strictly necessary to help us provide effective services and you may have the right to refuse. We will not pass it onto any other parties unless required to do so by law or in all reasonable circumstances the disclosure is fair and warranted for the purposes of processing or subject to a data protection exemption.

We have specific data sharing agreements in place with local agencies and sometimes the law requires that we may have to pass your details on to a third party, for example, to prevent crime.

How long we will hold your information

We will only keep your information for the minimum period necessary:

- Pre Planning & Post Planning Application Advice records – 12 years
- Planning Enforcement records – 10 years
- Consultation Processing records – 6 years
- Appeals records – 6 years
- Complaint investigation records – 10 years
- Unsuccessful application records – 10 years
- Minerals Planning, Monitoring Waste Site and Waste Management Sites records – permanent

Development Management & Enforcement Privacy Notice

The information outlined in this privacy notice will be kept in accordance with our retention schedule. All information will be held securely and destroyed under confidential conditions.

More information about our retention periods can be found in our summary Disposal Schedule.

Please note stated retention periods may be subject to any legal holds imposed under the Inquiries Act 2005 that may concern the information and override standard retention periods.

Your information rights

You are entitled to a copy, or a description, of the personal data we hold that relates to you, subject to lawful restrictions. Please go to our Make a Data Protection Request webpage to find out how to make a request.

You may be entitled to a number of rights under data protection law, including the right to request your information and to request that the information be amended or erased if incorrect depending on the service and legal basis. Please in the first instance contact Development Management at:
