

Spring & Summer terms 2024 - 2025 edition of the Governor Services training directory

Welcome

Our training programme includes a wide range of governor training courses which are delivered virtually, so you can attend from the comfort of your own home. Once your clerk has booked your place via CPD online, you should receive a confirmation email with PDFs of the course materials and the virtual meeting joining instructions attached. If you do not get these attachments along with the confirmation email, please get in touch immediately.

We ask that the Clerk to Governors, or the CPD leader that makes the training bookings, always ensures that the correct email address of the delegate is detailed on CPD, and that, after they have made the booking on behalf of the governor, they then follow-up to ensure that the delegate has received the booking confirmation and attachments. We want to avoid a situation where multiple attendees are unable to access the training due to missing emails/ attachments and having to contact Governor Services for assistance on the day of the training.

Governors Developing a 3 to 5 Year Strategic Plan

- This course is aimed to focus the governors on where they see the school in the next 3 to 5 years time. This strategy sits above the School Development Plan. This session will facilitate governors thinking regarding their aims, values and trajectory of travel to have a structure that is fit for purpose ensuring the viability of the school in the current climate.

Safeguarding: Holding leaders to account for the effectiveness of safeguarding

- This course focuses on the role and responsibilities of the governing board and the Safeguarding Link Governor in supporting them to execute their roles to meet the 3 core strategic functions and statutory responsibilities in relation to Safeguarding. It will provide an opportunity to reflect upon current governance practices and explore strategies for effective strategic systems and processes for governors to hold leaders to account for the effectiveness of Safeguarding to meet Ofsted expectations. The training will support governors in understanding what challenging questions look like to hold leaders to account, how to plan for effective Safeguarding monitoring visits and strategies for writing effective governor visits reports for the governing board. The course will look at how governors use Safeguarding information from the school and documentation effectively and help them gain a more in depth understanding of what information to expect from school leaders.

Governor Self-Evaluation

- The Maintained Schools Governance Guide refers to boards undertaking 'regular evaluation to monitor and improve the quality and impact of governance'. This course will focus on looking at strategies to undertake this role to demonstrate governor accountability.
- One of the key core strategic functions is for Governors to hold leaders to account for the impact of the school's work. This course will focus on how governors capture the impact of their own work as an individual, as a committee and as a corporate body.
- Through a facilitated discussion we will explore how and what effective governor monitoring looks like and the evidence governors can use to demonstrate the impact they have had on supporting the improvement of school outcomes and driving forward school improvement through their work. We will look at capturing this information using impact logs and touch on how staff can use this structure to report effectively to governors about the impact of their work. This course can also be offered as a bespoke course to have the greatest impact.

Governor visits

- The aim of the course is to develop governors' understanding of their statutory responsibility to strategically monitor and evaluate the work of the school through the strategy of governor visits. The course will develop a greater awareness of the wide range of opportunities for governor visits, including formal and informal visits, share good practice in relation to planning effectively for a visit, considering the protocols for visits: things to do before, during and after a visit, creating the correct impression and atmosphere and reporting outcomes to the full governing body to demonstrate how governors are effectively holding the school to account. The course will also raise awareness of how governor visits support the governors in meeting Ofsted requirements, whilst knowing what questions to ask and when.

Knowing WHAT questions to ask and WHEN to ask them

- This course focuses specifically on the strategic questioning governors should be asking to demonstrate support and challenge to their schools. This course guides governors through the key questions they should be asking to ensure that leaders are challenged about those aspects of schools that are most important. It also supports governors to fulfil their core statutory function and prepares them for the types of questions Ofsted inspectors will ask. Effective schools are those that accurately evaluate provision as part of a robust cycle. Governors can play a key role in providing leaders with supportive and critical strategic challenge. However, as non-educationalists, many governors can find this role daunting.
