Service Level Agreement (SLA)

All safeguarding training listed in this directory is available to any school / college in the county.

Any price reduction indicated will be applied to each booking at the point of invoicing and this is based upon whether or not your school / college has purchased the Education Safeguarding Support Service Level Agreement (SLA).

If you have not yet purchased the SLA and would like to then please do this via e-Store (opens in new window)

Training team availability

Availability

- The training & conference team will be available to speak to directly between .30am to 4pm by calling 01905 844 420 / 844 030
- Any voicemails received will be responded to accordingly based on date / time.
- If we are not available, we highly recommend emailing workforcesupport@worcestershire.gov.uk. All emails will be responded to based upon date / time of enquiry.

Course place availability

Our trainers have confirmed the maximum number of delegates per course. This will be based upon previous course delivery, logistical management of breakout rooms / numbers for virtual delivery, and specific requirements from awarding body's i.e., MHFA England. Based on this the WCC training team cannot exceed maximum numbers based upon what has already been agreed. We therefore strongly recommend and encourage planning your training needs and booking promptly.

Universal Training available to all

The DfE Funding code for any of our DSM-HL courses up to 31 March 2025 is: SMHL018

The training company delivering this course on our behalf is: Brightcore Training & Consultancy

Free virtual Safeguarding training

Domestic Abuse

Domestic Abuse training is being offered currently FREE, virtual delivery, via Sarah Wigley Associates. The training seeks to raise awareness and increase understanding of the dynamics of abuse, including coercive control. Support professionals to better identify, signpost and support victims as well as considering safe ways of responding to perpetrators. The training is made up of three modules and participants will be encouraged to complete the modules in order as the training is layered.

Module 1: Understanding and Responding to Domestic Abuse. This session will provide a map of the legislative framework of domestic abuse. Through the session case examples and reflections on real experiences to enable delegates to explore how professionals can better recognise domestic abuse, support, and signpost to local services.

Module 2: Working with Domestic Abuse within the context of Multi Agency. This session will further develop understanding of coercive control including aspects that perpetrators use to maintain or regain control e.g. parental alienation and gaslighting. Case examples and reflections on real experiences will be used throughout the session.

Module 3: Understanding and Working with Perpetrators of Domestic Abuse. The session will include case study examples and exercises to help delegates understand perpetrator perspectives and develop their understanding of risk factors where there is domestic abuse. Delegates will learn about the risks of collusion and understanding the function of denial, blame, minimisation, and justification. Specific input will be given on how best to engage with those who perpetrate domestic abuse.

We recommend that you contact Sarah Wigley Associates directly, by emailing bookings@sarahwigleyassociates.co.uk to be notified of dates for the forthcoming term
